

1. Installed the required software applications.
2. Cloned the following repositories
  1. Drupal VM
  2. Paddle Test
3. Configured and started vagrant
4. Installed and configured the Ubuntu guest OS.
5. Configured the Drupal Paddle test repository
6. Installed and setup the drupal with drush
7. Visited the Dashboard by logging in by admin role
8. Checked for the required modules and looked into the Paddle environment
9. Created content type Services according to the Documentation.
10. Added the Fields for Image and 3 text blocks to the Services content type.
11. Panelized the content type and assigned the NU layout
12. Assigned the custom created fields into the NU layout regions
13. Created and exported features module with the Feature structure
14. Enabled the Features module (Paddle Services Features)

15. Created a custom module Paddle Services with in modules/
custom directory
16. Created .info file and .install file with the role assignment
17. Created other files for giving support to the fields and regions
18. Created Editor role user and created the content on the customly created Content type.
19. Committed the changes and will be pushed to the remote repository shortly